

Welcome to death week. A full week of preparation of Hell. That is what it seems like. Death, ghouls, tombstones, skeletons, blood, screams... All that gore and guts for fun and entertainment. People are getting more engaged into Halloween.

Proverbs 8:36 state that if you love death then you hate Jesus. So... if you love the death scenes of Halloween then what does that tell you of your spiritual condition with Jesus?

Hate Jesus = Love death

KJV Proverbs 8:36 ... all they that hate me love death.

Moses gave the Israelites a choice: life or death in Dt30:15-16 and pleaded that they choose life (Dt30:19).

We are the descendants of those Israelite forefathers and mothers and we as a group are choosing death looking at the money being spent on Halloween.

LVB Deuteronomy 30:15-16

15 ``Look, today I have set before you life and death, depending on whether you obey or disobey.

16 I have commanded you today to love the Lord your God and to follow his paths and to keep his laws, so that you will live and become a great nation, and so that the Lord your God will bless you and the land you are about to possess.

RSV Deuteronomy 30:19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse; therefore choose life, that you and your descendants may live,

We live in a twisted world. We have Ebola threatening to wipe a large amount of people from this country but yet people are choosing to celebrate blood and death. An example is an extreme haunted house in California.

Is this the world's scariest hotel? Horror fans attempt to spend a blood-soaked night in hostel

Could you spend a night in a hotel that left you tied up, covered in snakes and drenched in blood?

It is a question that an amazing 24,000 people are eager to answer as they wait to try to spend one night in a 'hotel' that appears to be from the pages of a horror novel.

McKamey Manor in San Diego, California, has the dubious honour of being named the world's scariest hotel. It puts Britain's most haunted place - Yorkshire - into the shade.

A truly interactive experience, visitors travel between four terrifying locations and often find themselves trapped in cages, tied to chairs and awash with 'blood'.

Visits to the manor are limited to two people at a time but they are filmed so spectators can watch on global webcams as hardy souls take it in turn to attempt to survive up to EIGHT hours in the horror hotel.

It is a challenge that so far NO-ONE has ever completed, but that has not stopped thousands of fans putting their name on a waiting list to give it a go.

Due to its cinematic nature, founder Russ McKamey, 55, and his girlfriend Carol Schultz make sure no two visits are the same.

Thought Russ describes the house as PG-13, family friendly and "like Indiana Jones on steroids," participants must be at least 21 and have no potentially dangerous medical conditions.

He said: "Nothing is like what we do: It's like living your own horror movie."

"There are four different locations, which have been streamlined for hardcore fans, determined to make it through.

"I consider the people who take part in these haunts as my friends because I research and spend time with them before they go on the haunt."

"Everything is very interactive: the experience - and challenges - are to prove what you can and can't do."

The theme changes every year and participants have been tied, had their heads forced into a cage of snakes, eaten rotten eggs and even been gagged.

The whole project is run free-of-charge by Russ, who came up with the idea for the experience more than 14 years ago.

Running year-round, the haunt, though it has been described as the "world's scariest," is more about smoke and mirrors, Russ said.

A fan of such horror movies as Psycho, Texas Chainsaw Massacre, and The House On Haunted Hill, Russ, 55, said that the experience has been known to make grown men cry - each guest has to sign a waiver before going ahead with the haunt.

It has been reported that Russ and his girlfriend, Carol Schultz, have spend more than £300,000 to make McKamey the scariest experience on Earth.

The key phrase that caught my eye was this was: "The whole project is run free-of-charge" Free of charge? Not to him who paid a half a million bucks out of his pocket. He is getting paid, the "guests" who enter are paying by the terror, the fear that they produce as the tormentors dish out – and it's an all you can eat buffet. The creator of this haunting responds in the below article that he tries to talk them out of going but if they still want to go then "there in no escape until the tour is completed." The tour last 4-8 hours so imagine the terror and tears being created.

The trailer caused a huge argument in the ever inflammatory YouTube comments section this month, when one viewer asked how guests could say a 'safe word' with their mouths taped up.

McKamey Manor dodged the question, but did provide some more enlightening info about its safety protocols:

"LOL...you're taking this MUCH to serious, but I do understand. When a person is selected to take the tour...and after they pass all my requirements, than the games begin. The folks who seek us out are true haunted house fans who no longer get scared at a typical "Boo" haunt. So all of them know exactly what the haunt is all about. They have followed us, and seen us on TV and have watched all the movies. So they really do know. But I still try to talk them out of it...but they never listen..lol. These folks want the "Live Your Own Horror Movie" experience. In all our years of running an extreme haunt...no guests have been injured. They think they will be...that's what get their blood going. Its like being on a roller coaster or some other thrill ride. Yes they sign waivers and are well warned. Ant they know that once they are in...there in no escape until the tour is completed. That's why (especially with the new haunt), I have to make sure they can physically handle this little adventure. What you have seen in the past videos is ABSOLUTELY NOTHING compared to how it is now. Just imagine...only TWO guests take this massive tour at a time. That means they can expect to be going through stunt after stunt for at least 4 hours. How scary is that...and THEY LOVE IT! I'm also there every step of the way filming them and making sure they are safe. Safety is always paramount. It's all a big mind game. We control everything. What they see, what they hear, what they smell etc. We are the puppet masters and they gladly come along for this unique one of a kind adventure. We have folks flying in from all around the world to take the tour. In October we have a couple from England coming all this way to get married and to go through the haunt. We also have a woman who is such a huge fan that she is spending her vacation just to come and see us. She's traveling from Kuwait! Those two will be in the movie called "Haunter The Movie" which has been filming for the last year or so. Soooooo, I hope this explains things a bit. We are just normal folks putting on the scariest and craziest home haunt anywhere. We do all this for the love of the fans, and because we have so much fun entertaining the folks. So please try not to worry...all is fine, and everyone is actually having the time of their lives. But I'm glad my movies freaked you out a bit...I guess that means I was successful...lol."

On October 11, 2002, President George W. Bush gave at the Pentagon a memorial speech in remembrance of the events of September 11, 2001. President Bush mentions that there are some evil persons that feed on tears.

I am an instruments of evil, Behind me is a cult of evil which seeks to harm the innocent and thrives on human suffering. Theirs is the worst kind of cruelty, the cruelty that is fed, not weakened, by tears. Theirs is the worst kind of violence, pure malice, while daring to claim the authority of God. you cannot fully understand the designs and power of evil. It is enough to know that evil, like goodness, exists. And in me evil has found a willing servant

The bible speaks on these "instruments of evil"

RSV Hosea 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people; they are greedy for their iniquity.

RSV Proverbs 4:16-17

16 For they cannot sleep unless they have done wrong; they are robbed of sleep unless they have made some one stumble.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.

RSV Psalms 58:3 The wicked go astray from the womb, they err from their birth, speaking lies.

Fritz Springmeier has written several books. 2 of the books are on mind control: "The Illuminati Formula Used to Create an Undetectable Total Mind Controlled Slave" and "Deeper Insights into the Illuminati Formula,"

Mr Springmeier deprogrammed several mind control slaves and was able to document some of the programming methods that were used to take over the mind.

What I saw in the Haunted House article, to me, parallels the shattering of the mind thru trauma that Mr Springmeier writes about. This is the first step in creating a mind control slave.

3 preliminary steps are needed:

- 1) Selection based on genetics or dissociative abilities
- 2) Availability
- 3) Mental & physical features

In the creators response he hit all 3 points:

- 1) ...a person is selected...pass all my requirements... I research and spend time with them
- 2) ... they sign waivers and are well warned... they gladly come along
- 3) ... make sure they can physically handle...

The next step in Mind Control is using trauma based good cop/bad cop situations. The mind shatters into pieces it can't handle the situation and protects the core by walling off the other pieces.

The programmers then use different programming techniques to develop those areas for various nefarious purposes: murder, sexual compromises, espionage, social unrest, political....

Imagine you were “selected”. Once the “puppet masters” begin the “adventure” the person cannot escape, they lose track of time, they are pushed into their worst fears, they are bound up, confined, screamed at, threatened to be killed. They are expected to withstand this constant barrage for 4 – 8 hours without having their mind broken? I believe their minds are going to snap. The person who saves them from this “adventure” will probably be their controller later if there is a need for them (my out of the box thinking).

Just looking at the glistening pleasure in the eyes of these tormentors shows the demonic influences. Another purpose of mind control described by Mr Spingmeier is to create a tunnel or door for demons for this person and for generational curses to follow this persons children.

When a mind splits the pieces are a clean slate. What does the bible say about this condition? Those empty pieces are ripe for demonic invasion.

ASV Matthew 12:43-45

43 But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passeth through waterless places, seeking rest, and findeth it not.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man becometh worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this evil generation.

Every day we have to make decisions – most of them are minor. The decision to practice Halloween is a life of death decision. Parents are placing their child into the demonic realm, children are growing deeper into fun time with the devil and adults are becoming full blow converts to the demons as the above story shows.

If a parent knew that dressing up their child in a cute lion costume for Halloween would lead them to be screaming and torturing persons in a Haunted house with demonic glee – would they still dress their child up? This is just a taste to come. Future Halloweens will get more and more extreme.

What one generation tolerates the next generation accepts. If you tolerate this evil then your children will accept it and evil will grow even darker.

Pray that there will be a revival now for you and your children and your grandchildren's children. Without a revival then we will be rushing into very perilous times.

I, being an American of Irish decent, have rejected the practice of Halloween – being that it originated in Ireland. I will not support nor will I let that demonic spirit within my house. I'm making a stand to:

...Chose life..

Dt30:19.

Intentions of this article: shock and awe of a sample of evil celebrated and accepted in society with the hopes that some will reject this pagan festival of Halloween and break the cycle of curses. This is just the tip of the iceberg. If one only knew the true horror of this day of actual child sacrifices to demons – would that make them stop? 183,920 children were reported missing in 2013 – where are they?
