

Power grab week – June 27, 2015

A very dramatic week with major law passing and Supreme Court decisions decreed! The world has seen in these past 2 weeks far reaching implications that will set the stage for larger power grabs.

1) 6/25/2015 the TPP, Trans Pacific Partnership, passes. This is another preliminary step required before Revelation 17 can happen. Revelation 17 is when the 10 kings will receive their power to rule with the beast.

Rev 17:3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

Rev 17:4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

Rev 17:5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Rev 17:12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

Rev 17:13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

Rev 17:14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

The above map is very similar to the map published in 1941. The borders may shift and change but the plan for 10 regions/10 kingdoms remain.

2) The Pope calls for a new world order that would be greater than the present United Nation. This goes along with the TPP passing. The legs in Daniel 2:32 is the Roman Empire which the Roman Catholic Church is the surviving part of. The feet are another ruling empire and power needs to be passed from the Roman (Catholic Church) to that next kingdom which I believe are the 10 toes (feet of image). The Pope is calling for that next government to be set up in order to protect the environment. The Pope's chief science advisor is "a self-professed atheist" who believes the world's population should be reduced to 1 billion people.

Dan 2:32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, Dan 2:33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

173. Enforceable international agreements are urgently needed, since local authorities are not always capable of effective intervention. Relations between states must be respectful of each other's sovereignty, but must also lay down mutually agreed means of averting regional disasters which would eventually affect everyone. Global regulatory norms are needed to impose obligations and prevent unacceptable actions, for example, when powerful companies or countries dump contaminated waste or offshore polluting industries in other countries.

174. Let us also mention the system of governance of the oceans. International and regional conventions do exist, but fragmentation and the lack of strict mechanisms of regulation, control and penalization end up undermining these efforts. The growing problem of marine waste and the protection of the open seas represent particular challenges. What is needed, in effect, is an agreement on systems of governance for the whole range of so-called “global commons”.

175. The same mindset which stands in the way of making radical decisions to reverse the trend of global warming also stands in the way of achieving the goal of eliminating poverty. A more responsible overall approach is needed to deal with both problems: the reduction of pollution and the development of poorer countries and regions. The twenty-first century, while maintaining systems of governance inherited from the past, is witnessing a weakening of the power of nation states, chiefly because the economic and financial sectors, being transnational, tends to prevail over the political. Given this situation, it is essential to devise stronger and more efficiently organized international institutions, with functionaries who are appointed fairly by agreement among national governments, and empowered to impose sanctions. As Benedict XVI has affirmed in continuity with the social teaching of the Church: “To manage the global economy; to revive economies hit by the crisis; to avoid any deterioration of the present crisis and the greater imbalances that would result; to bring about integral and timely disarmament, food security and peace; to guarantee the protection of the environment and to regulate migration: for all this, there is urgent need of a true world political authority, as my predecessor Blessed John XXIII indicated some years ago”.^[129] Diplomacy also takes on new importance in the work of developing international strategies which can anticipate serious problems affecting us all.

a self-professed atheist and scientific advisor to the Vatican named Hans Schellnhuber appears to believe in a Mother Earth. [Gaia]

Schellnhuber is most famous for predicting that the “carrying capacity” of the earth is “below” 1 billion people. When confronted with this, he called those who quoted him “liars.” But he then repeated the same claim, saying, “All I said was that if we had unlimited global warming of eight degrees warming, maybe the carrying capacity of the earth would go down to just 1 billion, and then the discussion would be settled.” And he has often said that this temperature tipping point would be reached — unless “actions” were taken.

3) 6/26/2015 The Supreme Court makes it legal for homosexual couples to get married. 5 lawyers all who are either Jews or Catholics (which their religion states that homosexuality is a crime) have given the right of homosexuals to marry.

Rod Dreher at www.time.com wrote:

<http://time.com/3938050/orthodox-christians-must-now-learn-to-live-as-exiles-in-our-own-country/>

- Chief Justice Roberts and Justice Samuel Alito explicitly warned religious traditionalists that this decision leaves them vulnerable. Alito warns that Obergefell “will be used to vilify Americans who are unwilling to assent to the new orthodoxy,”
- The next goal of activists will be a long-term campaign to remove tax-exempt status from dissenting religious institutions. The more immediate goal will be the shunning and persecution of dissenters within civil society.
- We are going to have to learn how to live as exiles in our own country. We are going to have to learn how to live with at least a mild form of persecution. And we are going to have to change the way we practice our faith and teach it to our children, to build resilient communities.

Justice Anthony Scalia, one of the dissenters, wrote in his ruling:

Today’s decree says that my Ruler, and the Ruler of 320 million Americans coast-to-coast, is a majority of the nine lawyers on the Supreme Court. The opinion in these cases is the furthest extension in fact— and the furthest extension one can even imagine—of the Court’s claimed power to create “liberties” that the Constitution and its Amendments neglect to mention. This practice of constitutional revision by an unelected committee of nine, always accompanied (as it is today) by extravagant praise of liberty, robs the People of the most important liberty they asserted in the Declaration of Independence and won in the Revolution of 1776: the freedom to govern themselves.

4) The Supreme Court also ruled that ObamaCare would survive. The challenge was that the subsidies were being given to people in states who did not set up a state exchange but relied on the federal government’s exchange. If the Supreme Court ruled that subsidies couldn’t be given in those people in those states then those people’s payments per month would have doubled (at least) causing a flight from ObamaCare and the death spiral of the entire ObamaCare system. That didn’t happen. Justice Anthony Scalia said in his opinion that :

"The Court's decision reflects the philosophy that judges should endure whatever interpretive distortions it takes in order to correct a supposed flaw in the statutory machinery. That philosophy ignores the American people's decision to give Congress "[a]ll legislative Powers" enumerated in the Constitution."

5) California passed its mandatory vaccination of non-home-schooled children

<http://www.cnn.com/2015/06/25/health/california-vaccine-bill/>

Opponents include Californians for Vaccine Choice, whose website asserts the law "would eliminate a parent's right to exempt their children from one, some, or all vaccines, a risk-laden medical procedure."

"If SB 277 is approved by the Assembly and Governor Brown signs it, California parents will be forced to give their children more than 40 doses of 10 federally recommended vaccines or homeschool unless they can find a doctor to write a medical exemption that doctors deny to 99.99 percent of children under federal guidelines," the group said.
